

George Kakoliris has been a Life Coach at Triumph since 2010. George's favorite thing about working at Triumph is helping participants to discover and reach their full potential. George graduated from the University of Alabama in 1981 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing and Statistics. His previous experience includes being a Family Teacher at the King's Ranch from 1992 to 2000, working for Primerica Financial Services from 2000 to 2004, and being a Teaching Assistant at Glenwood from 2004 to 2010. George's family is highly important to him and includes his wife, Penny, two daughters, Kristi and Connie, and sister, Joanne. George is a loyal University of Alabama sports fan who also enjoys watching movies and cooking in his spare time. George is known to find the humor in life and embrace it!
