

Lorie Schumann, a Licensed Professional Counselor at Triumph Services, has served as a therapist in Birmingham for over 17 years in private practice.

As a previous employee of a local hospital, she worked as a therapist in several capacities including employee assistance, education and crisis intervention. Lorie has also served as a consultant to businesses and organizations concerning mental health for over fifteen years.

Lorie obtained a Master's Degree in Agency Counseling from The University of Alabama at Birmingham as well as a B.A. from Auburn University.

Her desire to work with our population was inspired by personal experiences with family and friends having disabilities and a desire to interact with others in the capacity of helping them reach their goals and realize their potential.

Lorie enjoys spending time with loved ones, and participating in the local art community.
