

Stephanie Betsch is an Employment Specialist at Triumph Services. Stephanie received her Bachelor's Degree in Social Work from Troy University and is a licensed Social Worker. Stephanie is a Birmingham native and loves working in the heart of downtown! She grew up in a family that serves adults with disabilities and she is excited to have the opportunity to work with this population everyday through Triumph! Prior to joining us, Stephanie worked as an International Social Worker and she still has a huge passion for traveling and experiencing other cultures. She also enjoys outdoor activities, running, and live music.
