

Sarah Keith is an Employment Specialist at Triumph Services. Sarah received her Bachelor's Degree in the Psychological Basis of Human Behavior through the New College Program at the University of Alabama, in Tuscaloosa. Sarah is native to the Birmingham area where she previously worked as a Behavior Therapist with children and teens with Autism. She is excited to work with the adults in this population as they prepare for the ultimate goal of employment and independence. Sarah is a passionate advocate of Autism acceptance and the neurodiversity movement. When Sarah is not working, she is usually enjoying time outside, longboarding, or working on an art project.
