

Jena Ward is an Employment Specialist at Triumph Services. Jena graduated from the University of Alabama at Birmingham with a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources Management. Jena chose Human Resources because she enjoys connecting people to the right opportunity and seeing people succeed in their career. After graduating college, Jena pursued opportunities outside of Alabama to gain experience while experiencing other places, but she is happy to be settled in Birmingham. Jena has extensive volunteer history working with adults with developmental disabilities, and she is excited to work with the individuals at Triumph Services. Jena enjoys traveling, the food scene in Birmingham, anything outdoors, and playing tennis.
