

Mac Edwards started his position as Triumph's bookkeeper in June, 2017. He is a graduate of Auburn University and completed extensive accounting coursework with honors at UAB. He is a retired CPA and brings experience with nonprofits and businesses, including work with a CPA firm. Mac is married to Polly. They have a young adult son, Davis, an engineer in Greenville, SC, and Zoolander, a canine companion. Mac enjoys auto racing, maps, bicycling, and exploring the great outdoors.