

Kristy Smith

Kristy Smith is a Transition Specialist at Triumph Services. Kristy has a B.S. degree in Integrated Marketing Communications from The University of West Alabama. She is continuing her education by working on a Masters in Business Administration. Kristy has a 12-year-old niece with a developmental disability that changed her life and is striving to help others with a disability become diligent and confident individuals. In her free time, she enjoys hanging out with her friends/family, playing with her dog, and traveling.