

Anthony Caldwell

Anthony is a Vocational Instructor/ Transition Specialist at Triumph Services. Anthony served four years in the United States Marine Corp, at Camp Lejeune in Jacksonville North Carolina. After his discharge return to Birmingham, Alabama where he received Associate of Science in Education from Lawson State Community College. He then received his Bachelors of Science in Elementary Education from Alabama State University in Montgomery Alabama.

After graduation Anthony returned to Birmingham where he began his eighteen years as an Educator in both the public and private school sector. This is where his passion and love grew to work with children and adults with Autism and Developmental Disabilities. He has dedicated his life to make sure they receive the best service possible to become successful and independent citizens of society.