

Vandelyn Harris is an Employment Specialist at Triumph Services in Montgomery. Vandelyn works with adults in the tri-county area that have a mental disability diagnosis. Vandelyn assists clients in finding sustainable, long-term employment opportunities that offer accommodations and allow employees to thrive. She also provides on-site and off-site job coaching to help equip clients with tools they need to be successful within their job. Vandelyn received both her Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Psychology from Auburn University Montgomery. Prior to joining the Triumph Services team, Vandelyn held an internship at Alabama Psychology where she assisted in therapy and psychological testing of both children and adults. Vandelyn has always wanted to serve others and promotes the equal treatment of all individuals. Outside of Triumph, Vandelyn is a worship leader at her home church and is the 3rd member of MHG (Modeling His Glory), a Christian worship group started by her and her closest friends.
