While working with students in a school system in Elmore County, we discovered the secret treasure of Kassie Battee. Kassie was serving as a substitute teacher at the time. Her desire to impact the lives of individuals with developmental disabilities was obvious. Kassie is now a trained Life Coach and Employment Specialist. Kassie prefers life coaching because she is able to develop intimate relationships with each person, knowing what motivates the individual and partnering in their journey to independence. Kassie has always had a passion to help and inspire others.
